Packing List

- Bike clothes, helmet etc...
- Casual clothes
- Waterproofs
- Spare gloves
- Swimming gear & towel (you can get great microfibre travel towels that fold very small from any good outdoors shop, also note in France they don't often allow swim shorts so get those budgie smugglers out)
- Toiletries
- First aid kit
- Basic painkillers etc...
- Local currency
- Credit card (advisable especially for some card only fuel pumps)
- Note with your driving licence of any medical allergies.
- GPS to program in the supplied waypoints if you have one, or backup maps
- A Torch (we recommend a nice compact head torch in case you need two hands to repair anything)
- Camera
- Power adapter and charging equipment for gadgets (We take a power bank also to save awkward plug points in some rooms etc)
- Driving Licence.
- Motorbike MOT Certificate
- V5 log book
- Valid Passport
- European breakdown insurance
- Travel insurance (that covers motorcycle touring)
- Motorcycle insurance policy documentation covering countries on the route
- 2 X breathalysers
- High Vis jacket
- If you require glasses, an extra pair
- GB sticker
- E111 or EHIC card to provide European health cover (available free from the Post Office or online)
- 2 or 3 Colour photocopies of all above documentation
